

5to7 Contents

five to seven educator
www.fivetoseven.co.uk

News and views 6-8

Managing behaviour 10-11

How should you react when a child in your class doesn't want to come to school? Stephanie Thornton discusses

Going green 12-13

Everyone is being urged to be green and environmentally friendly and schools are no exception. Angela Youngman explains

Eye witnesses 16-18

Are young children capable of reporting events back accurately? Patsy Mill discusses what this means in the classroom

★On the cover: Games 20-21

What place do games have in the classroom? Are they a useful learning tool or better left at home? Angela Youngman discusses

Gender 22-23

Sara Louis asks: What causes differences between boys and girls – and what implications does this have in the classroom?

Outreach 24-25

Taking children out on visits away from the school building is becoming harder for many schools. Angela Youngman looks at how to overcome the problems of class trips

Assembly 26

This season is traditionally associated with changeable weather, as spring begins to turn into summer

National Curriculum section
Literacy ii-ix
Traditional stories and book reviews

Elizabeth Hoad's year 2 lesson plan is on narrative work, Liz Hoad looks at the big book The Emperor's Egg and Durham University BA (Ed) students review the latest books

Science x-xiii

★On the cover: Recycling, re-using and reducing

Paula Hammond's lesson plan focuses on greener schools

Maths xviii-xxii

Money
★On the cover: Maths through arts and crafts
Georgie Cowan looks at the topic of money and John Davis explores symmetry

Geography xxiv-xxix

Improving self esteem
Christine Moorcroft, author and geography specialist, gets children to look at their local area

FREE POSTER INSIDE

A free poster with activities on the reverse

