

www.intered.uk.com
5TO7 Contents
 Educator

News and views 6-8

Learning to learn 10-11

In the final article of her Toxic Childhood series, Sue Palmer looks at parenting style and the role of the school in helping to detoxify childhood

Managing behaviour 12-13

Can the very young children reason critically?

Teaching methods 14-15

In the first of a four-part series, Jenny Mosely discusses what it means to be a good teacher

Music and the mind 16-17

New data gives a new twist to the debate about the effects of music on the brain

Reviews 19

Storytelling 20-21

Introducing a daily 'Story Time' session is one way to promote children's language, reading and writing skills

Motivating readers 22-23

James Bell discusses how to create a deep, daily reading habit

Special report 24-25

Is personality an innate and unchangeable legacy? Patsy Mill discusses

Healthy children 28-29

How to fight back at predictions for an unhealthy future

Peer massage 30-31

Christine Kenworthy discusses the benefits of children massaging one another

Big books 32-33

Assembly 34

National Curriculum section

Science ii-v

Perfect pancakes

In this month's science experiment, Paula Hammond makes the most of your school kitchen

Literacy vi-xi

Spinning a tale

Using story wheels in a year 2 lesson

Maths xii-xiv

Picture this

John Dabell uses visualisation techniques as an assessment for learning tool

Geography xv-xx

Local journeys

Wendy North suggests geography lessons set around your local area and explores what children can see, hear and smell

FREE POSTER INSIDE

Reversible bullying poster

